Measurements:

- Whisper White (base): 5 1/2" x 8 1/2", folded in half
- Whisper White (layer): 4" x 5 1/4"
- Whisper White: scraps to punch and die cut
- Lemon Lime Twist: scrap
- Melon Mambo: scrap
- Peekaboo Peach: scrap
- Basic Black (layer): 4 1/8" x 5 3/8"
- Basic Black (greeting): 3/4" x 3 5/8"

Instructions:

1. Adhere the Whisper White layer to the Basic Black layer.
2. Die cut three of the small bottles using Whisper White scrap cardstock.
3. Using a separate Sponge Dauber for each color, color in the die cut bottle, one each in Lemon Lime Twist, Melon Mambo and Peekaboo Peach. Leave a small area at the top of the bottle uninked as shown.
4. Die cut three large bottle caps; one each in Lemon Lime Twist, Melon Mambo and Peekaboo Peach. Adhere the bottle caps to their respective colored bottle using a Glue Dot.
5. Die cut three large bottle labels using Whisper White scrap cardstock. Adhere the labels to the center of each of the three die cut bottles.
6. Stamp two (2) star images on Whisper White scrap cardstock; one each in Lemon Lime Twist and Peekaboo Peach. Use the  $\frac{3}{4}$ " Circle Punch to punch the stars. Adhere the stars using Dimensionals to their respective colored bottle label.
7. Stamp the "yay!" greeting using Melon Mambo ink on Whisper White scrap cardstock. Stamp off one layer of ink on scratch paper to reduce the overall shade. Use the  $\frac{3}{4}$ " Circle Punch to punch out the greeting. Adhere the greeting to the Melon Mambo bottle label as shown.
8. Adhere all three bottles in the center of the white layer. TIP: Start with the Melon Mambo bottle for centering purposes.
9. Rub the Embossing Buddy over the Basic Black (greeting) cardstock. Stamp the greeting using Whisper White Craft ink. Immediately sprinkle with White Stampin' Emboss Powder. Set the powder using the Heat Tool. Let cool. Adhere this piece across the front of the trio of bottles as shown.
